INTERVIEW OF CANDIDATE FOR BOARDS & COMMISSIONS APPOINTMENT

Building Authority

Butch Hassig spoke about his interest in serving on the Building Authority.

The following commissioners spoke: Flynn and Smith.

Chair Miller thanked Mr. Hassig and noted that confirmation of the appointment will be made at the Full Board meeting to follow.

UPDATE ON DETROIT WATER AND SEWERAGE DEPARTMENT (DWSD)

Mark Steenbergh, Operations Manager for the Wastewater Services Division, and Jason Mateo, P.E., Chief Engineer, were present on behalf of Public Works Commissioner Anthony Marrocco and Chief Deputy Bill Misterovich.

Mr. Steenbergh provided input regarding possible options and alternatives that will be explored for the delivery of water supply and waste water services to Macomb County rate payers. He also provided some background and history concerning these important utilities.

Mr. Matteo provided a brief summary on the existing systems, and outlined a pair of studies that have been launched by their office regarding these matters. Mr. Steenenbergh emphasized that these studies will not provide answers to the questions of whether it is feasible for Macomb County to operate its own systems, but will give government officials a look at the practicality of going it alone.

The following commissioners spoke: Brown, Klinefelt, Smith, Carabelli, Sauger, Miller and Boyle.

MOTION

A motion was made by Tocco, supported by Sauger, to receive and file the update provided on the Detroit Water and Sewerage Department. The Motion Carried.

UPDATE ON COUNTY BUILDING INSURANCE CLAIM

Macomb County Emergency Management Department Director, Vicki Wolber, and Ethan Gross, of Globe Midwest, were present. Each provided input updating commissioners on the events that have occurred post-fire. The process of employee relocation and implementation of the Data Center received particular focus. Mr. Gross indicated that content submission for reimbursement is nearly complete; the remaining area to be addressed is resolution of the building claim. He said a final decision on the figure is anticipated within 30 days.

The following commissioners spoke: Brown, Flynn and Miller.

MOTION

A motion was made by Carabelli, supported by Sauger, to receive and file the update provided on the County Building insurance claim. The Motion Carried.
